CFWOC PRAYER AND FASTING GUIDEBOOK

2026:” FOR SUCH A TIME AS THIS” ESTHER 4:14

“They all joined together constantly in prayer.” — Acts 1:14

Purpose of the Fast

Text: Matthew 6:16

“When you fast...” (Matthew 6:16) — Jesus assumes fasting as part of spiritual life.

This time of fasting is a call for our church to:

Draw closer to God through prayer

Humble ourselves before the Lord

Seek spiritual renewal, direction, and breakthrough

Unite as one body in faith and obedience

1. What Is Biblical Fasting?

Fasting is voluntarily setting aside something physical (usually food) for a spiritual purpose.

It is always connected to prayer, repentance, worship, or seeking God’s will.

Fasting is:

Not a way to earn God’s favor

Not a hunger strike to force God to act

A spiritual discipline that expresses dependence on God

2. How to Prepare Before the Fast

Spiritually

Pray and ask God to search your heart (Psalm 139:23–24)

Repent of known sin

Set clear spiritual goals (What are you believing in God for?)

Let family members know (especially parents/guardians)

3. How to spend your time daily

Daily Spiritual Practices

Prayer (personal and corporate)

Reading Scripture

Worship and thanksgiving

Journaling what God is showing you

Daily Prayer Focus

4. What Makes Prayer and Fasting Effective

Text: “Draw near to God and He will draw near to you.” (James 4:8)

Right motives – seeking God, not attention

Faith – believing God hears and responds

Obedience – living out what God reveals

Unity – fasting together as one body

Persistence – not giving up too soon

5. How to Break the Fast Wisely

Break the fast gently (small, light meals)

Avoid overeating

Thank God for strength and revelation

Reflect on what God has done

6. After the Fast: Living the Results

Scriptural focus: “Devote yourselves to prayer, being watchful and thankful.” (Colossians 4:2)

Fasting is not the end—it is the beginning.

Ask yourself:

What habits should I keep?

What changes is God calling me to make?

How can I continue growing in prayer?
